

Join for Life or Annually

Membership Benefits

Scouting opportunities including:

- Scouting Community Service Projects
- Scholarship Opportunities
- Fellowship and Networking
- Organizational Leadership
- Events / Activities
- Life Long Learning
- Membership Directory

Your $300 lifetime or $20 annual membership fee supports these service projects, activities, events, and the annual recognition of Eagle Scouts.

A small portion is used to offset administrative costs associated with the organization.

Join today on the Eagle Scout Association website (www.stlesa.org).

For the betterment of Scouting and the community

The Eagle Scout Association of Greater St. Louis, Inc.

Eagle Scouts ages 18 to 80+.

Members earned their Eagle Scout rank in St. Louis and throughout the U.S. that represent virtually every trade and profession.

E.S.A. provides fun and fellowship.

E.S.A. Mission Statement:

*Giving back to Scouting by providing:
Advancement opportunities on the Trail to Eagle*

Service to the Greater St. Louis Area Council, B. S. A.

Camaraderie to all Scouts

Get involved today.

Visit us on Facebook.
*Eagle Scout Association,
St. Louis, Missouri*

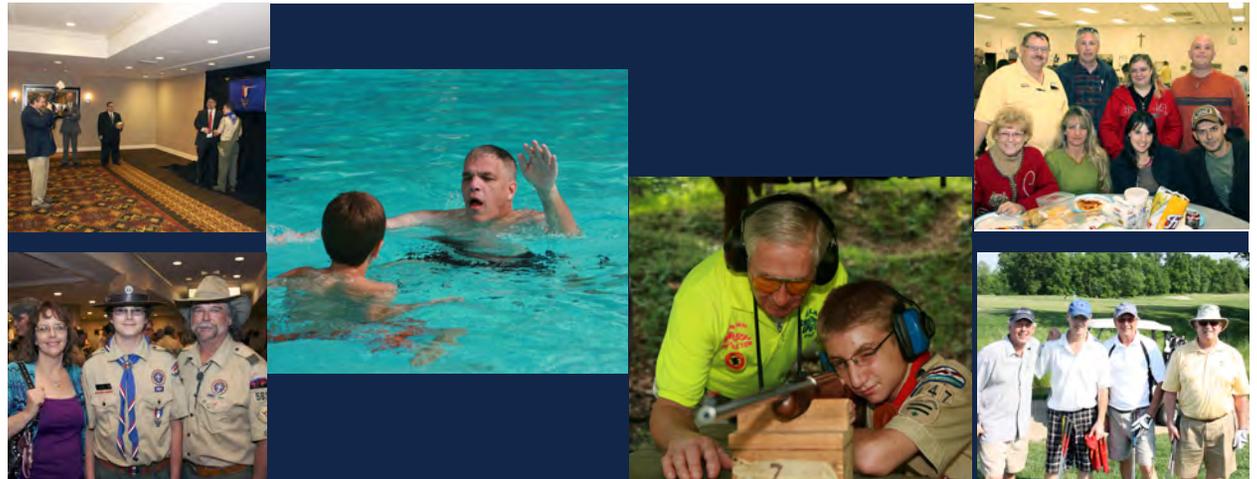

The Eagle Scout Association of Greater St. Louis, Inc.

Always an Eagle!

The Boy Scouts of America helps its 2.7 million youth members to be Prepared. For Life.™ The value of that preparation lives in the heart of every person involved in Scouting who has ever overcome one of life's challenges, and it helps inspire a lifetime of character and service.

Nowhere is this better exemplified than in the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest attainable rank in Boy Scouting. Scouts must demonstrate proficiency in leadership, service, and outdoor skills at multiple levels before achieving the Eagle Scout rank; fewer than four percent of Boy Scouts earn the coveted rank. Over the past century, the hard-earned rank has become widely recognized both in and outside of Scouting as a mark of distinction.

On my honor I will do my best to make my training, example, rank and influence strongly count for better Scouting and for better citizenship in my troop, in my community, and in my contacts with other people. To this I pledge my sacred honor!

Because the Trail to Eagle doesn't really stop at Eagle.

For some, it is through service in the classroom, a laboratory, the local community or the Peace Corps. For others, it leads to the great outdoors, the Appalachian Trail, the South Pole, or the summit of Mount Everest. For some, it continues on to the business world, the executive suite or the corner office, Congress or even to the White House.

Because every day you earn it as a man.

You do your best each day to make your training an example of your rank, and for your influence to help bring about better Scouting in your troop, through citizenship in your community, and in your contacts with other people. To this you pledged your sacred honor.

The men of the Eagle Scout Association have supported the Greater St. Louis Area Council, B.S.A. since 1947. Serving as a "flying squad" E.S.A. takes on projects others have neither the time nor resources to handle. History shows that when asked, there has been no shortage of members willing to help. "When do you want it done?" has always been the prevailing attitude.

Predating the National Eagle Scout Association by 25 years, E.S.A. members continue to reaffirm their allegiance to the Scout Oath and Law to recognize their obligations and responsibilities to the rank of Eagle Scout.

Get to know other Eagle Scouts.
Remember why Scouting is great.
Create new Scouting stories.

Go to the Eagle Scout Association website and join today.

